THOMAS HERENA, MA MFT

With over 6 years of direct service to the underserved population in the Bay Area Thomas does not shy away from people who need help the most. After working with adult individuals who had severe mental illness, substance abuse issues and years of trauma Thomas has continued to make it a mission to provide the best level of care to those who need it most. He is currently working with teens providing school-based therapy at a local middle school there is no population he is not willing to working with. Thomas has spent years devoting time to teens with eating disorders, body dysmorphia, and even self-harming behaviors. The last couple of years Thomas has been an adjunct faculty at SJCC teaching in the re-entry program, in jails, and this fall will be teaching at juvenile hall. Thomas is excited and is passionate to bring healing, teach from a place of experience and provide the best level of care in all fronts!

COURSE DESCRIPTION

As you scan through the span of topics we will address, you will recognize that the six hours we spend together will be a deep dive into the micro and macro effects of addiction's impact on the community at large. Yet, this same community is crucial in the healing and re-integration of the population we serve as Integrated Behavioral Health specialists. We will incorporate discussion, lecture, video, and interactions.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Explore an Integrated Approach to Ethics and Strategies for Interdisciplinary Ethics: Who is Targeted for Treatment? How is treatment implemented? Why is a Treatment Selected?
- Comparing the Multigenerational impact of addiction on families
- Recognizing The Impacts of Substance Addictions on Society
- Comparing Addiction among Socioeconomic Groups: Cultural Stereotypes about Income and Addiction
- Examining Opiate and Meth impact particularly in the pandemic
- Understanding Drug Cultures and the Culture of Recovery
- Analyzing Integrated Clinical Approaches to Recovery
- Recognizing the Importance of Developing and Maintaining Healthy Relationships in Recovery
